The History of Valentino Rossi

Bologna Italy, 02.05.2017, 18:25 Uhr

GDN - Valentino Rossi: Pilot Team Yamaha Factory Racing. (46 The Doctor) he is definitely one of the best and fastest riders of all time, his driving style is always very elegant, he is a genius to play races. Is the rider who over the years has always changed his driving style to be always at the top.

Valentino Rossi; Born Friday 16 February 1979 in Urbino, Marche, and he was still a child when the family moved to Tavullia. Tavullia is a comune (municipality) in the Province of Pesaro e Urbino in the Italian region Marche, located about 70 kilometres northwest of Ancona and about 15 kilometres southwest of Pesaro, and is about 15 km from the International Circuit Marco Simoncelli of Misano. Valentino has chosen the number 46 that has become an icon recognizable all over the world, was therefore the first Italian to win the World Cup in three different categories. The legendary Giacomo Agostini, for example, won fifteen World Cups in his career, but all in the 250 and 500 classes. Before him, Phil Read (125, 250 and 500) and Mike "the bike" Hailwood (250, 350 and 500): legendary names in the history of motorcycling.

This extraordinary pilot he is considered to be the greatest and one of the most successful motorcycle racers of all time, with nine Grand Prix World Championships to his name - seven of which are in the premier class.

In 1993, with help from his father, Virginio Ferrari, Claudio Castiglioni and Claudio Lusuardi (who ran the official Cagiva Sport Production team), he rode a Cagiva Mito 125cc motorcycle, which he damaged in a first-corner crash no more than a hundred metres from the pit lane. He finished ninth that race weekend.
